

Dear Energy and Technology Committee Member,

Please do not allow net metering to be eliminated. Our state, country and world need all the help they can get to slow the catastrophe of global warming. Giving Connecticut citizens an incentive to use solar power is a small but significant step in the right direction. Removing the incentive would be unconscionable.

Sincerely,

Dr. John Gallalee

16 Rockland Park Branford, CT 06405-4778 jagallalee@att.net